Section 4. No team or teams from the El Camino Division applying for an at-large position in the CCS playoff tournament may prevent a team or teams from the De Anza Division from being granted an at-large berth. The El Camino Division team or teams must remove their team(s) from the CCS tournament if it allows a De Anza Division team(s) to be included into the CCS tournament. If such removal of teams does not allow the De Anza Division team(s) to be included into the CCS tournament, the El Camino team(s) will be allowed to keep their spot in the CCS tournament. (SCVAL General By-Law)

4.1 If the De Anza Division Team and the El Camino team played head to head during the season and the El Camino team finished ahead of the De Anza division team in their head to head competition, based on match results, the El Camino team does not have to relinquish their spot. Only regulation matches that count on your record qualify. Sets won or lost have no bearing. Ties go to the De Anza Division team.

Section 5. A team's league record determines their finish in league play. Co-champions will be declared if two (2) or more teams tie for first (1st). Ties for the last automatic qualifying spot in the CCS Playoffs will be broken as follows:

5.1 In case of a two-way tie,

5.1.1 a. Matches won head to head, if no advantage.

- b. Sets won head to head, in no advantage.
 - c. Point differential: Points scored minus points given up in the sets played amongst the tied teams.
- 5.2 In the event of three (3) or more teams being tied for one (1) automatic playoff spot, the following criteria shall be used to determine which team gets the automatic playoff spot.
- 5.2.1.1. Matches won among tied teams. Team with the most matches won within the tied teams gets the spot. If two (2) teams remain tied refer to Art 5 Sec 5.1, breaking a tie between two (2) teams. If 3 or more teams still tied then ...
 - 5.2.1.2 Sets won/loss ratio amongst the tied teams. Team with the best ratio within the tied teams gets the spot. If two (2) teams remain tied refer to Art 5 , Sec 5.1, breaking a tie between 2 teams. If 3 or more teams still tied then;
 - 5.2.1.3 Point differential: Points scored minus points given up in the sets played amongst the tied teams.
 - 5.2.1.4 Still tied, the tie will be broken by the team that won the last league match between the tied teams.
- 5.3 In the event of three (3) or more teams in the De Anza Division being tied for two (2) or three (3) automatic playoff spots, Art. 5 Sec. 5.2 will be used. The top two (2) - three (3) teams will receive the available playoff spots.
- 5.4 Ties for CCS bonus points will divide points between them on entry sheets.

Section 6. The Junior Varsity championship will be determined by the win-loss standings in league play. Ties for first will result in co-champions being declared.
