President – Kami Tomberlain

- A. Discussion to whether the SCVAL BOMs wishes to pursue coming together with the PAL in football only. The process has a focus to competitive equity first and then if possible geography within each division.

Press release

"The Board of Managers of the Santa Clara Valley Athletic League met in special session on December 17, 2021. The managers agreed (with 13 yes votes and one abstention) to join the Peninsula Athletic League for football only, guided by the process developed by a subcommittee of the two leagues. This merger will improve the competitive equity of the football programs in both leagues by creating two A, two B, and one C level divisions."
